

B301, Spring 2007

Survey about the Second Paper

We would like information about your experience of writing the second paper and invite your comments, which may be anonymous or not, as you wish. We will use these comments both to better understand how students learn history and also to guide us during the rest of the class.

Did you approach the group paper differently from the way you have approached writing a paper alone? Please explain.

Did working in a group alter the way you think about conflicting ideas or evidence? Please explain.

Did working in a group cause you to think through, reconsider, or change any of your ideas? Please explain.

How much time did you spend working on and thinking about this paper? About the same amount of time? More or less time? Please explain.

Was working in a group this time similar to or different from other experiences you've had working in groups? Please explain.

Do you feel more confident, less confident, or about the same about the final product your group produced, in comparison with the paper you wrote by yourself? Please explain.